

Hold My Hand....

And please never let go.

Please never walk away.

Be there to walk me across the street.

When the world is upside down

Always remember me.

Even when I'm not around.

In my eyes, I want you to know, stay by my side.

In my thoughts, I may seem lost.

But, in my heart, my love can't explain.

Thank you for holding my hand and showing me the life I deserve to live

And the life I should have.

I never knew somebody who was a complete stranger to me would give a girl like me a chance.

When everyone thinks she's crazy and she feels like she doesn't deserve to live...

Her past is hidden but in her eyes it's pain and confusion.

She doesn't understand how you can care....

She was beaten, abused, and neglected by a mom who put drugs over her kids.

A family that's shattered into pieces.

With you, every word you told me, with every hug, and "Hi", you give me strength.

You make me wanna run and see the world with my two lil' brown eyes and with my two lil' feet god gave me

Walk through the path of needles and fight off all the enemies that are trying to stab my heart.

Please hold my hand and don't let go cuz I'm struggling right now and need someone there.

Just never let me go....
